More information about them can be found at www.vanthinking.co.za (menu item Upcoming Seminars).

We take a limited number of people for each seminar, and therefore advise that you register early to ensure that your place is finalised

Day Seminar on Resilience Management:

This seminar gives a short overview of Resilience Management. It addresses the very thorny issue of how to survive the unforeseen, especially when unforeseen events incurring high risk and impact occur. While most current approaches to Resilience Management are closely linked to Risk Management, the unique approach this seminar will introduce you to makes it possible not only to survive, but to learn to thrive in such situations. Resilience means "to have the ability to survive the unforeseen".

1. What is Resilience Management?
2. Understanding some underlying concepts in order to engage Resilience Management
3. Decision Making for Resilience
4. Risk Management and Resilience
5. Thought Leadership for a Resilient Enterprise
